

End-of-the-year Project: A Book About Me

“A Book About Me” is a project that you tell us about yourself. You may use family photos, draw illustrations, cut out magazine pictures, or even some combinations of the all above. The text and illustrations should be laid out on ordinary paper, so you can have them recorded into a book. You will be given 3 minutes to give us an oral presentation. The oral presentation will be held on Thursday & Friday (to be announced). The text should be in Chinese characters, except names of people or places. Your text should be about 300 words or so. You will be graded on this project.
